Advanced Search and Seizure

The 4th Amendment, and in particular search and seizure, are at the very core of police work. Almost everything you do as an officer involves the Fourth. Yet, most cops are taught about eight hours during the academy and that's it. If you're lucky maybe you get some in-service legal training.

I & I Day 3

This Course will enhance the investigator's ability to assess a subject's credibility - to read and evaluate the verbal and nonverbal behavior symptom displayed by a subject (victim, witness or suspect) during an investigative interview for indications of truth or deception. It will expand the content of the investigative interview by demonstrating the utilization of behavior provoking questions and the appropriate response models. It will increase the investigator's ability to secure legally acceptable confessions through the use of the Reid Nine Steps of Interrogation, including theme development, stopping denials, overcoming objections and the use of alternative questions.
